

MIAMI EDITION

FLORIDA DESIGN

New, Now, Next!

MEET THE DESIGN
FUTURISTS SHAPING MIAMI

DYNAMIC SOPHISTICATION
Kinetic Modernity on Brickell

LONG LIVE MAGENTA!

WITH ITS HINTS OF RED, PINK AND
PURPLE, PANTONE'S 2023 COLOR
OF THE YEAR DEMANDS OUR
FULL ATTENTION

LEFT: Designed by Lisa Reiser exclusively for HEM, the Moln is a cloud-like sculpture filled with liquid silver, which accounts for its mirror finish. Limited to an edition of 35 and in the year's It-color, this is a piece that speaks for itself. hem.com; studioreiser.se

ABOVE: A little magenta goes a long way—as in these two silk pillows from NGALA TRADING with feather-and-down fill to ensure long-lasting coziness. ngalatrading.com

LEFT: The Ecoleaf pattern in watermelon from MARCUS WILLIAM should be reserved for the most daring applications. The multipurpose jacquard's motif is striking on pillows, curtains or anything else your heart desires. marcuswilliam.com

ABOVE: The silhouette of the Meredith cabinet by VILLA & HOUSE denotes classic elegance. Its magnetic magenta finish speaks to 2023's daring attitude. In other words: a winning combo. vandh.com

ABOVE: Inspired by the 1970s, the versatile Charles Armchair by ROYAL STRANGER balances opposing and contrasting textures perfectly. The bold magenta shade only adds to its stand-out appeal. royalstranger.com