

New England HOME

Celebrating Fine Design, Architecture, and Building

15th

Anniversary Issue

WHAT'S NEW?

RALPH LAUREN AT ERIC HAYDEL

Trad is coming in hot in Boston thanks to the Ralph Lauren furniture line now being carried at Eric Haydel at the Boston Design Center. The iconic brand's classic American style is equally at home in urban lofts or coastal cottages. Prices upon request; Eric Haydel, Boston Design Center, erichaydel.com.

JEFFREY BILHUBER FOR LE GRACIEUX

Design luminary Jeffrey Billhuber has teamed up with Le Gracieux to create a new line of fabrics, and the resulting collection celebrates color and fine craft. Intricate geometrics mix with contemporary florals, reflecting the sophisticated mix Billhuber is known for. Prices upon request; available in New England through Karen G. Walls, Boston, karengwalls.com.

METROPOLITAN TRIM COLLECTION BY STOUT

Bespoke trim is often the finishing touch that elevates design, and Stout's new Metropolitan Trim Collection serves up a wide variety. The collection encompasses seventy different variations of curtain tiebacks, ribbon, fringe, piping, and tassels. Prices upon request; Ailanthus, Boston Design Center, ailanthusltd.com.

